Green Fountain NEWSLETTER

After considerable planning & a lot of WhatsApp banter Laager 9 & Laager 18 filtered into Green Fountain to set up camp for the weekend.
As the sun went down, we all gathered for the meet & greet. Old acquaintances rekindled as the fires were lit.
Shooters in abundance as the tasting began. The tots making their rounds very quickly.
Burgers on the menu as the patties braaied.
A sudden change in the weather saw a thunderstorm roll in, but spirits weren't dampened as we headed for cover, L9 opted for warm showers.
L18 back to the fire with umbrellas in tow.
"DIE HARDS" ready to party. L9 where are you???
As discovered in the morning they have an early bedtime regime. hee hee

FRIDAY

Saturday morning brought great excitement, geared up & ready for the Mansfield Game Walk.
Even little Riley sporting a top view in her carrier.
Focused on looking for game as we trekked up & down steep terrain. Wittstock A opting afterwards for a slightly shorter route. (I'm sure they just wanted to sneak off, climbing Mount Everest would have been easier).
Back tracking, they managed to reach the group which had stopped for a breather.
Nearing the end & spotting springbok, Bonte Bok & a herd of Wildebeest, which took a fancy to L18's Pink club shirts. Leaving in question! Do we run, lie down or climb a tree as they circled around Glynis & Dave.....opting for a standstill moment.

Most game seen at the end of the walk. "We should have just pulled up a camper chair right there"

SATURDAY

Well-deserved ice-cold beer & pizza in Port Alfred, saw us running late for the next agenda!

THE CHILL DIP!!! Brrrrrrrrrrrr

Icy wind blowing as the afternoon was cooling. Glugging of Old Brown Sherry to warm the insides.
SPLASH! ..... in we go with Sandra turning into an instant smurf, blue took on another meaning, while others reveling in the icy waters.

Looking forward to the rugby, while we gathered around the projector.
Being treated to an abundance of fried calamari thanks to Brian. MMMMMM delicious snack well enjoyed.
One comment for the Rugby though! Disappointing!

Braai time & L9 determined this eve to keep up with L18. Music going & a table full of mouth-watering salads...supper done.

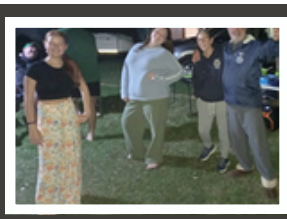

Time to shake a leg & sokkie the night away Laager style...while some gracefully demonstrating how to catapult backwards off a chair, go down on your knees literally & have a skill for dozing off.
We are definitely a multitalented Laager.
As the night turned into the early morning we headed with sleepy thoughts of a wonderful evening.

SUNDAY

Indaba time with lots of laughs, fines (Georgie you were sneaky) & formalities, as Darren presented Green Fountain with a Resort endorsement plaque, who was very impressed & super chuffed.

Even a treat with some healthy oranges & cupcakes made by Georgie for Zimmy's birthday which of course he would not let us forget.

Gathering for a group photo as we all squeezed in, smiled and waited for the flash.

Time flies when you are having fun as the weekend came to an end. Travel mercies until we all meet again.
