"New games were taught and hidden talents discovered"

Concert & Laughter

Saturday evening was the highlight of the entertainment, featuring a lively talent show hosted by Jonathan, whose role as MC had everyone "in stitches" with laughter.

Each plot contributed an entertaining item, starting with a powerful combined skit by four plots, "Ma 'n slang het my gepik." The night was packed with musical acts, including Zach and Jacky's rendition of "Endless Love", Beverley and Brett's performance of "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do", and hits like Greg's "Mrs Jones", and Tony & Carol's "O Carol".

Donovan closed out the musical segment with the classic "My Way". A playful performance of "Dapper Muis" by Marlene & Nicky and Randal's emotional poem, "Die Mot En Die Kers", rounded out the talent.

Guests enjoyed refreshments throughout the evening, with popcorn served early, followed by an interval featuring cold drinks, chips, and lollipops.

The Saturday night concert was a massive hit, hailed as the "best entertainment" the camp has ever hosted, capped by the "best Hole in the Bucket performance ever". Guests loved discovering hidden talents and overcoming stage fright.
The entire weekend was praised for being "very well organised", with the joy spilling over to delight four outside guests. A huge thank you to Eddy and Nicky who assisted us.

Sunday Indaba

The event formally wrapped up Sunday morning with a wonderful Indaba meeting, easing into a peaceful departure to our various destinations.

GAME TIME

Saturday Afternoon: Learning and Laughter

Saturday afternoon was dedicated to fun and games, with everyone enjoying a mix of new and familiar activities. The day featured a few exciting firsts, as many learned how to play Mexican Train, Rummy, and Klawerjas. Throughout the afternoon, the group kept energy levels high by continuing to enjoy coffee and koeksisters while mastering the new rules and sharing laughs.
